KICK AND SCREAM

Baby's Awful Suffering from Eczema.

Could Not Hold Her. She Tore Her Face and Arms.

Cuticura Saved Her Life, So Mother Says.

"When my little girl was six months old, she had eczema. We had used cold creams and all kinds of remedies, but nothing did her any good. In fact, she kept getting worse. I used to wrap her hands up, and when I would dress her, I had to put her in the table for I could not hold her. She would kick and scream, and when she could, she would tear her face and arms almost to pieces. I used four boxes of Cuticura Ointment, two cakes of Cuticura Soap, and gave her the Cuticura Resolvent, and she was cured, and I see no traces of the humor left. I can truthfully say that they have saved her life, and any one suffering as she did, I should advise them to give Cuticura a fair trial." MRS. G. A. CONRAD, Lisbon, N. H., Feb. 7, 1898.

Five years later, viz., Feb. 23, 1903, Mrs. Conrad writes:

"It is with pleasure that I can inform you that the cure has been permanent as it is now six years since she was cured, and there has been no return of the disease since, and I have advised a lot of friends to use the Cuticura Remedies in all diseases of the skin."

Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tormented babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure and purser of emollients, to be followed in severe cases by mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent. This is the purest, sweetest, most speedy, permanent and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted and pimply skin and scalp humors, eczema, rashes and irritations.

OLD COTTON FIRM SUSPENDS BUSINESS

Trusted Agent of S. Munn & Co., Disappears From New York City.

ABOUT $100,000 IS INVOLVED.

Chicago Accounts Said to Be the Worst Involved—Market Little Affected—Firm May Resume Business.

New York, May 31.—The suspension of S. Munn, Son & Co. was announced on the Cotton Exchange today. The firm is one of the oldest in the cotton trade in this city. The head bookkeeper and cashier disappeared about ten days ago and the firm believes that as soon as its accounts are straightened out it will be able to resume.

At the office of the firm it was said that Clarence F. Cameron, the office manager and head clerk, had been absent for about a week. An examination of the books so far made, it was added, showed apparent discrepancies amounting to about $100,000.

OLD FIRM. The Munn firm is one of the most conservative and respected in the cotton business. It is composed of Samuel G. Munn, H. Tilton Munn and the estate of A. G. Munn, Jr. The firm had a coffee exchange membership, but had few open accounts there. The following announcement from the firm was read on the Cotton Exchange:

"We hereby assume to the members of the Cotton Exchange that through the absence of our head and trusted clerk, who has left his books in an involved condition, we are obliged to suspend. We trust this suspension will only be temporary."

"We would request all members of the exchange having open contracts with our firm to present them to us with their accounts at once. We further state that we have very few open contracts on the New York Cotton Exchange, and that these balance each other."

SAID BABY WAS ILL. August H. Skillen, the legal representative of the firm, said that the Chicago Board of Trade accounts of the suspended firm were the worst tagged up. A week ago last Saturday, it was said, Cameron left the office, saying that he was going to Brooklyn, where his baby was ill. Cameron called at the firm's office this morning and told the officials of the company that she had not seen her husband since that day. Cameron had been in the employ of the company for fifteen years.

Members of the firm of Munn & Co. say that their local cotton accounts are all right, and have already been adjusted, and that the property of the firm improperly diverted was comparatively small and not nearly $100,000.

Several claims to meet notes were made some time ago by firms doing business with Munn & Co. by houses creditors to the suspended firm, and in this way it was discovered that something was wrong, and by an examination of the books the irregularities were disclosed.

The cotton market was very little affected by the suspension.

When Is a Cafe A SALOON OR RESTAURANT?

This Question Will Be Settled by Judge McElhinney in County Injunction Suit.

Is a cafe a saloon or a restaurant? This is the question asked the witnesses in the injunction suit of Edward J. Dougherty against George C. Wright and John Barrett in the trial in Clayton yesterday and on which the merits of the case depend.

Dougherty is a saloonkeeper owning a leasehold for temporary hotel purposes near the convention entrance to the World's Fair. Jointly with Wright he erected a two-story building, and now seeks to restrain his partner and Barrett from starting a saloon on the premises.

In the agreement between the litigants it was stipulated that a cafe could be established. Wright contends that a cafe is generally understood to be a saloon or a saloon is an attachment to a cafe, while Dougherty maintains differently.

Judge McElhinney took the case under advisement after hearing expert testimony on the character of the leading St. Louis cafes.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN RIGHT AND WRONG.

THE "H. J." COMFORT LACE

Is an apt illustration of right shoe construction as differing from wrong. The fact that shoemakers are paying for the privilege of making their shoes like the "H. J." is significant. That bad bunch at the bend accompanying other lace shoes is wrong. That good, smooth connection of the "H. J." patent is right.

WILL DEFEND POLICEMEN.

City Attorney Anderson Appears for Alleged "Indians."

City Attorney Thomas L. Anderson appeared as counsel for Police Sergeants Kirk and Berry and the patrolmen who came before the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday, charged with complicity in the "Indian" operations in the recent Democratic primaries. The cases were continued until June 29.

Much comment was occasioned by the appearance of a city official as attorney for the policemen. Mr. Anderson said that he will defend the men, as it is his duty according to the Missouri statute. He read a portion of Section 1265 of the Revised Statutes, as follows:

"It will be the duty of the City Attorney * * * to defend before the St. Louis Criminal Court and the St. Louis Court of Criminal Correction all actions against any officer or servant or agent of the City of St. Louis."
